

Second Shift was introduced with intake of 60 seats

From the academic session 2011-12 the intake of 60 seats for the under graduate programme in computer science & engineering was sanctioned by AICTE. The intake of 60 Seats were also sanctioned for the Civil Engineering programme. The working hours for the second shift will be from 7:30 AM upto 2:00 PM. With this intake the total intake seats of the department is 180 students .

Higher Configuration Computer Systems at department

New Computer Systems added in Department for up gradation of Labs having higher configurations with touch Screen monitors. The brand HP provides the well configured system with compact design and configuration with 1.8 GHZ Intel Atom Processor, 2 GB DDR3 RAM and 250 GB SATA HDD. The systems are able solve the simulation software tools which were used in practicals.

Workshops /Seminar in month November 2011

- Seminars/Presentation are organized at department level for the teaching faculty members.
- Wipro Mission 10X Workshop organised by T&P Department on "High Performance Teaching Skills" for Teaching Faculty from Computer science Department Prof. S.R. Gupta, Prof. S.P. Akarte and Prof B.R. Burghate attended the Workshop.

Rational Rose Software

The liesence copy of Rational Rose was aquired by the department . The tool was very useful in practicals.

148 students were recruited by TCS in Campus Drive in August 2011

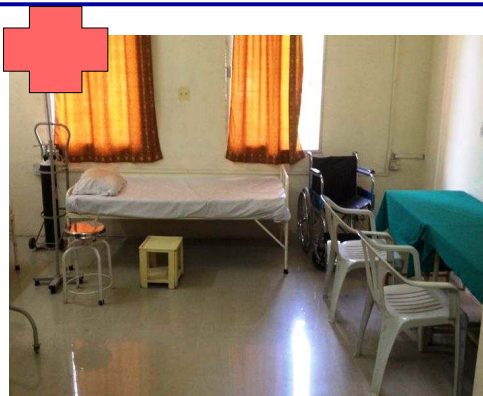

: In today's world of technology and Research where campus placement is a great platform for students to emerge in their career; Prof Ram Meghe Institute of Technology and Research situated in Amravati, Maharashtra provides such great platform for the students to excel in their career by grabbing the golden opportunity of campus placement taking place in the institute.

The statistics are a testment to the skills of the students that has been enhanced by quality curriculum of the institute; Pre-placement training programs, workshops, high speed internet facilities, higher education studies program, dedicated teaching and non-teaching staffs in the institute have provided the students with the immensable knowledge which led to the success of students in campus placement. Moreover the institute has provided an emerging platform for job opportunities of the students by arranging campus placement drives in the institute.

Medical facility is added in college campus for Student and Staff members

The health centre is manned by a medical officer and a healthcare assistant to provide excellent medical care to all the students, staff and faculty at no cost. They provide quality health care to everyone, evaluates the quality of services, maintains the overall efficiency of the centre .

Engineers Day

September 15 is celebrated every year in India as Engineer's Day to commemorate the birthday of the legendary engineer Sir M. Visvesvaraya (1861-1962). The department had organized the technical events at department level. The response from students were appreciated.