

Parents's Meet:

COMPETITIONS HELP IMPROVE COMPETENCY LEVEL DATED 17 APRIL 2014

Competitions help improve competency level: Deshmukh

■ Amravati Bureau
AMRAVATI, Apr 17

DEPARTMENT of Management Studies at Prof Ram Meghe Institute of Technology and Research, Badnera-Amravati had organised a parents' meet recently. Principal A P Bodkhe presided over.

A U Manwar, parents representative, was the chief guest. Prof H M Deshmukh, Head of MBA, were prominently present. A P Bodkhe, in his presidential address, said that the institute has been doing well in academics, placement, research and has maintained tradition of merit. He urged parents about the need of furnishing skills, capabilities and the intellectual excellence of students and youth in strengthening the society and nation at large. He assured the parents that students are safe as they are in the capable hands.

At the outset, Prof H M Deshmukh welcomed the parents. In his introductory remarks he said that education plays pivotal role in the transformation of people into a well-balanced society. He underlined the main objective of parents' meet. Regular parents-teachers meeting help in moulding successful future citizens. Parents should get glimpse of education strategy of the college such as the pedagogical approaches, the training and placement and extra-curricular activities for the overall development of the students. He appealed to parents to encourage their wards to participate in various activities for increasing their competency level. Ashish Deshmukh, Academic Auditor informed about University Topper Smita Nimkar with two gold medals, 4th and 6th merit. Dhanshri Kedia and Munender Bacchu Singh. Nilesh Kadu, Training and Placement Co-ordinator, very well projected the entire analysis of Training and Placement activities through PPT presentation. He presented the data of students' attendance in placement drive. He also pinpointed the number of campus drives generated by department and the packages of companies offered to students. Vilas Meshram, Department Co-ordinator, made an effort to make aware the parents about the ED Cell activities.

Dignitaries present on the dais.

He said that through ED Cell the institute aims at developing entrepreneurial abilities within the students by incorporating Entrepreneurship Development Camp (EDC), visits of successful entrepreneurs, industrial visits and visits of DIC/MSME officials regarding financial assistance. Deshmukh answered queries of parents. In his concluding speech, A U Manwar expressed satisfaction about the department activities. Nilesh Kadu was the co-ordinator of the function. Vilas Meshram conducted the programme. Santosh Sairise proposed a vote of thanks. Ashish Deshmukh, Dr P N Tayade, Shrikant Deshmukh, Madhuri Sadar, Ravisha Kapdia, Tulika Dhage, Saroda Sengupta and Pratiksha Kalmegh, non-teaching staff V T Dongre, Sachin Dhare, Bhavesh Wankhade and Siddharth Khadse took efforts for the programme.

BJP starts grievance redressal centre in Amravati

■ Amravati Bureau
AMRAVATI, Apr 17

AMRAVATI city BJP has started a grievance redressal center for people who could not find their names in voters's list.

Those who could not vote in parliamentary elections can now register their names in the voters' list to avoid such incidents in the future.

Thanks to the district administration, many voters could not vote in the parliamentary elections at Amravati, as they did not find their names in the voters' list.

This had created chaos in Amravati and people expressed their anger over administration.

Almost 46,000 voters' could not cast their vote on Apr 10.

To avoid such incident in future, Amravati city BJP has started a grievance redressal center at BJP office at Rajapeth.

People can register their names in voters' list here from 11 am to 8 pm, appealed Tushar Bharatiya, City President, BJP.